

Discrimination know your rights

Have you been treated unfairly at work or elsewhere? You are protected in law if you are treated differently because of:

Age, Sex, Race, Disability, Religion
Pregnancy, Maternity
Sexual Orientation, Gender Reassignment
Marriage, Civil Partnership

We can offer free legal advice and support if you have experienced discrimination. We can also advise and train organisations.

Email disc@bristollawcentre.org.uk or visit www.bristollawcentre.org.uk/discrimination

We are experts in discrimination and equalities law

We can help you fight discrimination – not only at work. You may be a customer, tenant, student, service user or member.

You were told you could not get on the bus in your wheelchair

Your employer refused to make adjustments for your hearing disability

Your child's school is not making the changes necessary to teach your child

Contact us for free, confidential advice

Call 0117 924 8662 Email disc@bristollawcentre.org.uk

Bristol Law Centre 2 Hide Market, West Street, BS2 0BH
(we are in Old Market, between Talking Money and Sofa Project)

Opening hours 9.30-4.30 Monday to Friday

The help we can offer may depend on where you live and your circumstances; contact us and we will tell you how we can help.

www.bristollawcentre.org.uk/discrimination